Ah, to look like Brigitte Bardot. Ok, stop dreaming, but you can dress like the former sex kitten. The glamorous Louis Féraud fashion house that gave B.B. her curve-enhancing style is bringing their chic expertise into town this week with a new boutique. Expect wild prints and luxe fabrics. And the best part, a percentage of the sales this month will benefit Summer School for the Arts. The retired Bardot may be all about animal rights now, but a benefit for cinema? B.B. would be so proud. June 6.

The Runner-Up

If dainty jewelry is your thing, then you'll want Geri Jewelry's adorable cloud-shaped full pave diamond Hug Me necklaces (Angie Harmon is a fan). The shape may be innocent but the diamonds are serious bling bling. At Fred Segal at Santa Monica.
