Good enough to eat:

A little luxury goes a long way with Jo Malone's new Nectarine Blossom & Honey bath soap ($50 for set of three) — featuring a decadent fusion of black currant, Clementine flower, cedrat leaf, nectarine, peach, plum, and acacia honey; www.jomalone.com.

Ring tone:

You'll never want another bouquet of flowers with this Pivone ring by Geri ($8,900). Part of the Romance in the Park collection, this fabulous floral design will have you swooning with its white gold setting, diamond pavé, and pink mother of pearl accents; 888.500.GERI or www.gerijewelry.com.

Drizzle stick:

For the surprise rainy day, Davek's new men's umbrella ($95) is ideal, with its quietly stylish look and compact frame. And with a Carbon WindFlex Frame, steel shaft and microweave fabric canopy, it offers optimal durability; www.davekny.com.

Hit thong:

Get instantly vacation-ready by slipping on the Scarf thong by Steve Madden ($49). Although slight in shape, the leather footbed and silk Pink Multi upper will keep you functional while fashionable; Macy's, Capitola Mall, 1865 41st Ave., Capitola, 621.3333.

Pitcher perfect:

Wilton Aremetale shows that servingware can be a star all its own, with this smooth and sirenic Newport Bistro Pitcher ($100) crafted out of alloy metal; Chefworks, 1527 Pacific Ave., Santa Cruz, 426.1351, www.chefworks-santacruz.com.

Look smart:

Marc Jacobs knows how to do dressy casual to a tee. This light-as-air, lavender, deep V-neck dress with a tiered ruffle hem is perfect for a picnic, museum, or quick day trip away; details: Marc Jacobs, 125 Maiden Lane, San Francisco, 415.362.6500, www.marcjacobs.com.
